

TOP TEN REASONS TO SHOP AT NATURAL FOODS MARKET

1.) You're supporting a locally-owned business that's been in the tri-cities region for 24 years under the same ownership. The money you spend here stays in our community.

2.) We respectfully compensate our staff with an above-average wage and full benefits, including health insurance, profit-sharing and a retirement package, unlike most other retail establishments.

3.) Our experienced staff is well-trained to assist you in making better-informed, more confident decisions about your purchases.

4.) We take the time to listen to your needs and focus on developing a long-term personal relationship with you.

5.) We feel your health depends on a good nutrition plan that includes quality food, as well as supplements. We take pride in our wide selection of organic and specialty groceries, as well as nutritional supplements and natural personal-care products.

6.) You can depend on us to carefully select our products for quality ingredients so you can enjoy them with confidence.

7.) You help support local producers whose products we take pride in featuring, such as free-range eggs, grass-fed beef and raw honey.

8.) Our educational outreach program includes lectures on health issues provided free-of charge to academic, civic and support groups, as well as free health magazines, a monthly newsletter and a comprehensive website.

9.) In order to insure your satisfaction, we gladly offer a hassle-free, money-back guarantee on all your purchases. We also welcome special orders, as well as mail orders.

10.) We whole-heartedly support many local non-profit organizations, such as Second Harvest Food Bank. In order to promote environmental awareness, we responsibly recycle all paper, glass and cardboard.

It's our mission to optimize your well-being by offering the best in service, selection and solutions. As always, we appreciate your support in working together toward a healthier future.
